TESTIMONIALS.

RHEUMATISM, &c.—"HENRY'S THILUM" has been used in my own family, and its use recommended by me to others. As an emollient, anodyne and astringent application, it is a medicine of SURPASSING VIRTUE. In Rheumatic affections its efficacy, when well rubbed in, cannot be questioned, while its fragrance effectually meets one of the greatest objections to unguents in general.

W. J. VAN SOMEREN, M. D.,
Surgeon General (Madras Retired.)

Burmore, Bridge of Allan, 23rd June, 1881.

RINGWORM.—For the last twelve months I had been suffering from Ringworm about my neck, which did not yield to any of the various remedies I used. Having got a box of "HENRY'S THILUM" from you, I made no hesitation in trying it. Six or seven applications of the ointment in two days completely cured me of the disease. I am much delighted to communicate to you this result of my trial of your "THILUM" with a view to your recommending it as a SPECIFIC FOR RINGWORM.

MAHOMED ISMAIL HAJEE ZENAL ABDIN.
Bombay, 26th May, 1881.

HEMICRANIA AND SCORPION STINGS.—I have used "THILUM" for a pain which I was subject to on one side of my head and face, and it gave me IMMED relief. I have also applied "THILUM" for Scorpion St and find that it takes much effect and gives IMMED relief.

TREACHER'S GINGER ALE, is highly aromatic and pleasingly pungent to the palate ; the various ingredients of which it is composed are proportioned to a nicety, and the utmost care and cleanliness ("as with all our Aerated Waters") are exercised in its production.

TREACHER'S LIME-ADE, is a delicious carbonated preparation of the Montserrat Lime Fruit Juice, an antiscorbutic, blood-purifying drink of superior character, ranking as a companion to our much admired Ginger Ale. It is cooling and refreshing at all times, healthful and suited to the present season, and being of full citricity and flavour is palatable and agreeable both as a medicinal agent and as a beverage.

TREACHER'S SODA AND POTASH WATERS, are by the aid of steam power charged with Gas at the greatest possible pressure, and thereby rendered sparkling and agreeable in the highest degree.

TREACHER'S TONIC WATER, is unequalled for delicacy of flavour and tonic properties, each bottle containing a definite quantity of Quinine presented in an agreeable form.

TREACHER'S LEMONADE AND GINGERADE, are as flavoured waters celebrated for their freshness and delicious taste.

TREACHER'S OZO is a delightful sparkling health-sustaining beverage, a dissipator of mental and nervous affections, and a renewer of physical power.

TREACHER'S AERATED WATER, is thoroughly impregnated with Carbonic Acid Gas, and, being free from alkali, it is well adapted for admixture with Claret and Acid Wines. Alone it drinks sharper to the palate and with greater pungency than Soda Water.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 6.

WITH no public and very few private commercial telegrams in from London during business hours to-day, the usual Saturday half-holiday, has been very distinct, the extent of actual transactions having been most limited.

The most noticeable feature in the home advices of yesterday is the distinct tendency towards dearer money in London, rates of discount in the open market being again ¼ to ⅜ per cent. higher. On Consols the effect of this has been to induce a decline of ⅛, the quotation now being 100⅜. Rupee Paper does not appear to be affected so far, the previous day's quotations being repeated; but if money becomes much dearer they will recede, like all other securities. The 3½ per cent. Sterling Loan, in the meantime is ¼ higher at 103⅜.

In General Produce Coffee is again 1s. per cwt. higher. Cocoanut Oil is unchanged. Rapeseed is firm and slightly higher; other Seeds and Wheat unaltered.

The Manchester Piece-goods market is reported quiet at previous prices. The statement of the shipments of goods from the U. K. for India during the month of July is to hand. For Bombay the figures are again very moderate, but for Calcutta heavy.

Cotton in Liverpool comes quiet at unchanged values, the sales being 8,000 bales. In New York ready Mid. Uplands are unchanged, but November shipment is quoted 10 points higher at 10·54 cents. per lb., notwithstanding comparatively large receipts at the ports. The weekly figures of supply present no new features of striking interest. In Liverpool the stock is only reduced by 3,000 bales, and the total visible supply by 50,000, the latter item being 423,000 bales ahead of the same period last year and 720,000 bales over 1879.

The American Crop figures to date give the following comparisons with the two previous seasons:—

	1881.	1880.	1879
Week's Receipts	18,000	9,000	4,000
" Exports to U. K.	32,000	25,000	2,300
" " to Continent	1,000	8,000	3,000
Total Receipts since 1st Sept.	5,711,400	4,886,000	4,427,800
" Exports to U. K. "	2,726,600	2,508,000	2,026,900
" " to Continent "	1,712,700	1,200,900	1,395,000
" Stock in the Ports	240,000	175,000	106,000

The visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 5th instant compares with the two previous years as follows:—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Total supply of all kinds	1,960,000	1,535,130	1,241,190
" " " Surats	490,000	452,990	461,040

For the U. K. only the figures are:—

Stock in Liverpool	777,000	716,470	502,620
" London	42,000	55,820	32,300
American Afloat	90,000	60,000	25,000
E. Indian "	107,000	160,000	165,000
	1,016,000	992,300	744,920
Price of Mid-Uplands	6 13-16d.	6 13-16d.	6d.
" Fair Dholleras	4½d.	4 15-16d.	5 3-16d.
Difference..	2 9-16d.	½d.	1 3-16d.

EXCHANGE.—With strong advices from Calcutta the Banks have been very willing drawers here to-day, both ready and forward; and the demand for remittance being limited, rates have advanced fully 1-16d. for Private Paper and practically to the same extent for Bank Bills, although nominally they are only quoted 1-32d. up. The market at the moment looks undoubtedly firm, and as the Banks will have to find a considerable amount of money in Calcutta on Monday to meet the first instalment of the new loan, we may see rates pushed up slightly. The advance, however, cannot in the ordinary course of things be very extensive, as the payments against the loan are only withdrawn from the market for a very short interval, and the accumulation of unsold Council drafts—which will now probably be taken up at the Government limit—would of itself almost be enough to check an upward movement. In London Bar Silver yesterday was 1-16 higher at 51 5-16 per oz., and will probably have further improved to-day in sympathy with exchange on this side. Closing quotations for ready bills are:

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 21-32d.	per rupee.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 ⅞d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 7 ¾d.	"
Credits, 3 "	1s. 7 29-32d.	"
Documents, 3 "	1s. 7 29-32 to 15-16d.	"
France, 3 "	2·09½ to 2·10½.	"

On Calcutta rates are unchanged.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been somewhat firmer again for Fours, which under the influence of considerable speculative buying have recovered to Rs. 104, in the face of extremely weak advices from Calcutta. Fours-and-a-half, however, are pressed for sale at Rs. 112½, and to our thinking both denominations are likely to go lower if the firmness in the London money market continues.

SHARES:—The market has been quiet with no great amount of business passing. In Banks there is no change. Colaba Land Co.'s are Rs. 10 higher at Rs. 1,020. In Press Companies Prince of Wales are Rs. 25 higher, Apollo Rs. 16, Broach Cotton Co. Rs. 6 lower. Spinning and Weaving Mills are steady, and in one or two cases Rs. 5 higher. Bombay Cotton Mills are Rs. 10 higher, Bombay-Burmah Trading Rs. 10 lower.

IN COTTON to-day there is no quotable change. A few hundred bales are reported to have changed hands for export, chiefly of F.G.F. Dhollera. Up-country reports on the whole are favourable, the fear now not being any shortness of rain, but that there may be too much.

SEEDS:—Linseed is strong at Rs. 6-7, and Rapeseed has advanced to Rs. 6-4 per cwt. for Guzerat.

WHEAT is in strong demand, and Soft White must now be quoted at Rs. 31-8 per candy.

FREIGHTS have undergone no real change. For Liverpool 37s. 6d. ready and 35s. forward are the quotations. The s. s. Hathersage is reported fixed for September loading at 37s. 6d., U. K. or Continent, with concessions.

PIECE-GOODS are quiet and in every way unchanged, although continued moderate shipments to this port are in favour of the market.

COALS continue dull on the spot, but firm for distant delivery, of which there are no sellers.

The Bombay Gazette

MONDAY, AUGUST 8, 1881.

THE decision given by Mr. Justice Bayley on Saturday in the case of Graham & Co. vs. Merwanjee Nusserwanjee & Co. proves that the form of charter-party that has been in vogue from, we may say, time immemorial is not legally the contract which it has been supposed to be, as understood both by ship owners and merchants. Under this decision, merchants have, ever since they begun to charter vessels, been claiming from the shipowner, under the usual form of charter-party, rights which were not given them by the contract, and the claims have been until within a year universally admitted. The decision, indeed, upsets a form of contract the meaning of which has up to within a year never been called in question. As the matter is one of supreme importance to the mercantile community we give concisely the details of the case. The suit which stands on the court records in the names of the parties given above is really a suit brought by Messrs. Remington & Co. against the master of the steamer Ossian to compel him to take a cargo to Cette, a port on the southern coast of France, in the Gulf of Lyons, to the west of Marseilles. The charter-party ran in the usual form: that the steamer "shall load a full and complete cargo, and shall proceed to a safe port, as ordered on signing bills of lading, or as near thereto as she may safely get, and there discharge, beingal ways afloat." On arrival in Bombay the vessel was entered out for Marseilles, but on being nearly loaded the captain was informed by the charterers that the destination of the vessel was to be Cette. The captain then declined to go there, on the grounds (1) that it was not a safe port, and (2) that after having once declared a port the charterers were not at liberty to alter it. We may mention here that this second point, a very nice one, was not decided by the Court, the decision regarding the first point rendering any decision regarding the second unnecessary. When the ship was loaded the commander declined to sign bills of lading for Cette, and the charterers filed a suit in the High Court and obtained an injunction to restrain the defendants from committing a breach of the charter-party and to compel the commander to sign bills of lading for Cette. The defendants thereupon applied to the Court to discharge the injunction, and the case was heard by Mr. Justice Bayley on Friday and Saturday last. The counsel for defendants contended that Cette was not a safe port; that the meaning of the term "safe port" in the charter-party was a port which the vessel in question when fully loaded could safely enter, and in which she could discharge all her cargo, being always afloat; that Cette harbour has only about 18 feet of water, while the Ossian was drawing 21 ft. 6 in.; that the commander was not bound by his contract to lighten the vessel outside the harbour to enable him to enter; that the contract, which was that the steamer was to go to the port itself and discharge there, could not be interpreted to mean that she was to proceed to some place near that port for the purpose of discharging even a portion of the cargo. Defendants' counsel further contended that the words "or as near thereto as she may safely get" were inserted in the charter-party for the benefit of the owner, and were only intended to cover cases when some accident or some unforeseen occurrence prevented the vessel from entering the harbour; that they were not intended to cover the case of a vessel which could never get into the harbour with the full cargo which the charter-party required her to take.

The case cited in support was a decision, on appeal, of Lords Justices James, Brett, and Cotton in the case of the Alhambra, where these judges, reversing a decision of Sir Robert Phillimore that the vessel was bound to lighten outside, held that in a charter-party with similar words to those in the case before us a vessel was not bound to go to a port which she could not enter fully loaded, and that she was not bound to lighten outside. They further decided that a custom for vessels to lighten outside a port before entering could not be received as evidence, on the ground that it contradicted the contract itself; the contract being that the vessel was to go to a port and discharge, while the alleged custom was that the vessel was to go somewhere else and discharge. Counsel contended that the case of the s. s. Ossian was in every way similar to that of the Alhambra, and that as the Ossian could not enter the harbour of Cette fully loaded and discharge all her cargo there, lying afloat all the time, the injunction must be removed and the vessel be permitted to sail for Marseilles. Plaintiffs' counsel contended, on the other hand, that the above case did not apply, and he relied on two cases, Hillstrom vs. Gillsom and Capper vs. Wallace. In the former of the cases cited a vessel having contracted to go to Glasgow, or as near thereto as she could safely get, and discharge there in a dock, always afloat, on reaching Greenwich found she could not enter the dock without discharging a portion of her cargo. It was held as reasonable that she should lighten before discharging. The other case was of a similar character, the name of the port being given in the charter-party. Counsel therefore contended that, in the case of the Ossian, it was reasonable that she should lighten outside if it were necessary, which, he submitted, was a matter of doubt, as the lightening of the vessel by the consumption of coal on the voyage would very likely enable her to enter without discharging. Plaintiff also put in a chart of the harbour of Cette showing a depth of water in the harbour of 19 feet at most, and also an affidavit from Lloyds surveyor giving his opinion, having visited Cette, that it was a safe port. In reply defendants' counsel contended that the two cases quoted by plaintiff did not apply, as in both cases the ports had been named; that it in the charter-party of the Ossian the port Cette had been named, the steamer would have been obliged to go there even if she were compelled to lighten outside; that the case of the Alhambra was a case exactly in point, and the only one to be found. Mr. Justice Bayley found for the defendants, holding that Cette was not a safe port in the meaning of the charter-party; and the Ossian sailed on Saturday evening for Marseilles, having lain here five days on demurrage while the case was undecided.

The decision will doubtless cause universal surprise among the mercantile community, who have, under similar charters, ordered vessels, and without question, to the continental ports on the North Sea, where lightening is necessary before the vessel can enter the harbour. The decision referred to gives the owner, under the present form of charter-party, which has passed undisputed up to the present time, the right of refusing to sail to many ports which he has heretofore accepted without question. There are, moreover, certain curious things in connection with this matter. One is, that had Cette been first declared as the port of discharge, it is doubtful if any objection would have been made; again, it is curious that the point has only now been raised at home for the first time. The case of the Alhambra was heard on appeal only a few months ago, the decision having been given on the 22nd March last, and the Government are authorized to recover arrears of rent by distraint and sale of property. Any arrangement for commuting the royalty by the present payment of a lump sum may be considered. No lease is to be granted until the applicant deposits a sum of Rs. 1,000 as security for the proper fulfilment of the contract.

THE orders directing the 25th Regiment N. I. I. to be held in readiness to proceed at short notice to relieve the 8th Regiment N. I. in the Bolan have been countermanded, and this regiment will accordingly remain at Bombay until required to move to Bhuj next trooping season. We are informed from Allahabad that the 14th Sikhs, at Umballa, have been warned to relieve the 8th Regiment N. I. should it be considered necessary to do so; but so long as everything remains quiet in the Pishin and beyond Chaman there is little likelihood of General Hume's division requiring reinforcements.

ABDOOL SOBHAN'S case—that out of which the Calcutta Bench and Bar dispute arose—in which he will have to answer a charge of attempting to bribe the police, will come, on before the Patna Sessions Court on Monday next.

CAPTAIN OKETON, Private Secretary to the Lieutenant-Governor, N.-W. Provinces, takes leave to England, and vacated his appointment at the end of last week.

AT Lahore there has been such very heavy rain that the line is flooded for nearly fifty miles in the direction of Mooltan. At Mooltan itself the weather has been extremely hot, but, in spite of this, the public health has continued remarkably good.

A REPORT from Kabul states that Abdul Rahman has put Sirdar Sultan Mahomed Khan, son of Fateh Mahomed Khan and grandson of Wazir Akbar Khan, to death, with great cruelty.

A SIMLA correspondent of the Civil and Military Gazette says that both the Commander-in-Chief and General Hume are quite satisfied, at all events for the present, that it will be unnecessary to make any additions of importance to the outposts between Quetta and Chaman. Ayoub appears as representative of the nationalist, anti-Feringhee party—in other words, of almost every Afghan in the country; but he is too prudent and astute to risk a collision with us. It is thought we may hear at any moment that he has expressed the desire to open friendly communications with the Indian Government.

A TELEGRAM from Quetta, dated 4th August, to the Pioneer, states:—There is no fresh news of importance. From further information it appears that Sirdar Shams-ud-din Khan was taken prisoner by his own soldiers, who finding themselves deserted by Sirdar Mahomed Hassan Khan, the Amir's Governor, determined to go over to the enemy. All is reported quiet in Khandahar, and traffic is recommencing on the road. There is not the least chance of any disturbance in Beluchistan. The country is perfectly quiet, and there has been a complete absence this year of inflammatory letters such as were circulated by Ayoub last year among the tribes. The fact is Ayoub only wants to get to Kabul. He will therefore do nothing which can in any way give us an excuse for interfering with him, and will rather use his influence to prevent disturbances than otherwise.

ACCORDING to the Meteorological Reporter, the hottest days in Calcutta during July were the 13th and 14th, when the thermometer rose to 91·8, and the coldest day was the 28th, when it fell to 76·3. The rainfall of the month was 13·64 inches, and rain fell on 24 days.

ACCORDING to the official reports on the season and prospects of the crops published in the last Assam Gazette, rain was badly wanted in Silhet, Goalpara, Kamrup, Darrang, Naugong, and the Garo Hills, both ploughing and transplanting of rice seedlings being stopped in consequence. Both cholera and cattle-disease were abating.

THE accounts relating to the trade and navigation of British India for the month of June, 1881, and for the three months 1st April to 30th June, 1881, show that the imports during the month amounted to Rs. 4,66,38,267, and the exports to Rs. 5,78,66,622, as compared to Rs. 4,93,31,784 and Rs. 5,73,04,398 in the corresponding month of 1880, and to Rs. 3,02,51,348 and Rs. 5,13,52,990 in June, 1879. For the three months April, May, and June the figures are—imports Rs. 13,96,12,247; exports Rs. 19,86,33,277, as compared to (imports) Rs. 14,45,07,354 and (exports) Rs. 20,82,59,338 in the corresponding three months of last year, and to (imports) Rs. 11,68,98,380 and (exports) Rs. 18,22,87,393 for 1879.

THE rainfall in Bengal during the week ended the 30th of July varied, in all except four districts, from above one inch to 20·39 inches, which were recorded in Chittagong. Prospects of the crops have greatly improved, though more rain was required in many parts of the Rajshahai, Patna, and Bhagalpur divisions. Where the rain was heaviest, as in Bankura, Midnapur, and Chittagong, the crops in the low-lying lands have suffered, whilst in Kattak we are told that "heavy floods in Jajpore, and floods nearly as heavy in Kendrapara, have destroyed almost all miscellaneous crops and endangered rice. Waters now subsiding. Plenty of time for resowing last rice crops. In Balasor damage has been done by the Subanrekha and Baitarni, which have been unusually high, flooding the low lands a second time, and stopping cultivation.

WE regret to hear of the death, at Fyzabad, of Mr. R. F. Gibbon, C.S., by which the Oudh Commission has lost a promising young officer. Endowed with as much patient earnestness as ability, he had the prospect of a career of singular usefulness and success; and his untimely loss is felt, the Allahabad paper understands, as much by the people as by his brother officers.

A BOMBAY correspondent points out to the Allahabad paper that General the Hon. Arthur Hardinge is by no means responsible for the suggestion that sepoys shall wear fancy badges in their turbans. The fact is that the proposal was started long before the present Commander-in-Chief of Bombay was appointed. General Hardinge, however, is doing something to effect a real improvement in the sepoy's habiliments: for one of the first orders he gave was for the assembly of a committee to consider the clothing of the Native Army with especial reference to their foot-coverings.

THE reason for the delay in bringing Mahommed Hyat Khan to trial, it is stated, is that Mr. C. Brown, of the Punjab Police, who has been entrusted with the enquiry, must now visit Peshawur and various stations on the frontier in order to collect evidence. A Calcutta paper remarks:—"Now that matters look so gloomy in Afghanistan, it is not very likely that the witnesses who may be residing at Kabul will be forthcoming. We may take this case as a conspicuous instance of the way in which Sir Lepel Griffin failed as a Political officer. The mistake is just that which a shallow but brilliant man would commit, but a mistake which a man of any real power, and any real knowledge, we do not say of the Afghans, but of human nature, could not possibly have perpetrated."

THE Indian Daily News has authority for contradicting the rumour that Mr. A. Mackenzie, Secretary to the Government of Bengal, in the Revenue and General Department, intends to take furlough. The paper remarks:—"The report, as it reached us, was backed up by a circumstance, but it would seem report and circumstance are equally wide of the mark. Mr. Mackenzie does not even think of taking short leave, and furlough is, of course, out of the question. We are very glad to know Mr. Mackenzie will not leave the province; for although he did behave somewhat barbarously to the Municipal Corporation, he is not a man to be spared lightly, or one whose place it is easy to refill."

THE Principal Veterinary Surgeon of the Bengal Army, the Inspecting Veterinary Surgeon, and no less than eight veterinary surgeons of the senior grade now serving in Bengal have applied for permission to return to England during the coming trooping season. The Lahore paper remarks that this should open the eyes of the authorities to the fact that there must be grave dissatisfaction, and that something must be done at once if this neglected but most necessary service is to be kept in a state of efficiency.

THE Englishman writes on the subject of the Bengal jails administration:—There is no doubt that Dr. Lethbridge is entitled to public sympathy in regard to recent discussion condemnatory of jail management in Bengal. He is the victim of the Prison Conference almost without any fault of his own. He was ordered to introduce a certain scale of diet into the jails under his charge, and he did so, with the unhappy results which he has been the first to denounce. It is unfortunate for him that he has not yet informed the public of the means he adopted to secure his being immediately informed of the result on convict health of a marked diminution in their food supply. In his letter to the Times he states that "the diet scale recommended by the Conference was introduced on the 1st March 1879. The medical returns for 1879 were tabulated and brought under consideration in March 1880." We presume the medical returns include mortality returns, which we always understood were supplied oftener than once a year. It is scarcely credible that the Inspector-General is left in ignorance of the health condition of his jails from year's end to year's end. It is to be regretted that the fact has been put in a form so liable to be misunderstood as the passage in the Times letter makes it. We do not for an instant believe that Dr. Lethbridge was unaware down to March, 1880, that in the previous year the jail population was dying away at a rate of, as he puts it, "an extraordinary mortality," yet we are afraid this is what most readers of the Times will imagine. This is the more unfortunate as we have no doubt of the entire truth of Dr. Lethbridge's statement that he "courts the fullest enquiry." A chief point made by the Inspector-General, following Lord Hartington, is that the high mortality in Dinagepur and Baraset was caused by the transfer to these jails of invalid prisoners. It does not seems to strike either of these gentlemen that if these prisoners had been left in other and less "commodious" and healthy jails the mortality on the average would probably have been higher. The question is why there were so very many invalid prisoners in all the jails, particularly when Sir Ashley Eden has put it on record that "the great sickness and mortality of the year cannot be attributed to the general state of public health," which was unquestionably good in 1879. Dr. Lethbridge also urges that mortality is always high in the sub-Himalayan districts. This is true, but explains only a small fraction of the general fatal sickness. Rajshahi with a mortality of 177·4 per thousand in 1879 does not come under this defence; neither does Singbhum with 212, nor Bogra with 262 in 1879, nor Balasur with 110·8, nor Mymensingh with 142·8 per thousand in 1880. We believe that Dr. Lethbridge would have been much better advised in holding by his short rations theory as a whole in those two years. He has done a public service in courageously proclaiming the real cause of the mortality. The manner in which he despatches the Prison Conference is an admirable bit of official sarcasm. Says the Inspector-General: "As I was not a member of the Conference, I am unable to say how the Conference arrived at the idea that a dietary containing only 174 grains of nitrogen was sufficient for Bengali prisoners on hard labour." Judged by this August body deserves nothing better than to be dropped in this contemptuous fashion.

LORD ULICK BROWNE, Commissioner of the Rajshahye and Cooch Behar Division, has, the Pioneer says, been fudging out by Sir Ashley Eden. Early in April every year a fair is held at a place called Nekmurd, where elephants, camels, oxen and horses, piece-goods, and salt are sold. Last year, it appears, Lord Ulick Browne reported that 120 elephants, 120 camels, 1,000 buffaloes, and 30 horses were bought and sold at the fair of April, 1879. He now reports that at the fair of April, 1880, exactly 120 camels, 1,000 elephants, and 30 horses were sold. Moreover, the average price of an elephant was on both occasions Rs. 1,000, and of a buffalo Rs. 25. Then, too, in both years miscellaneous goods to the value of Rs. 2,55,911 were exposed for sale, and the salt sold each time was exactly the same. His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor is naturally enraged, and the following official observations have been recorded: "The same statistics have, it would seem, been made to do duty for two years, and are probably of no value in either case. The Lieutenant-Governor really thinks that the Commissioner and the local officers might have taken a little more trouble to procure accurate figures." The Commissioner has been asked, as usual, for his reasons in writing.

THE Calcutta correspondent of the Pioneer writes that "the Bar and Bench controversy, which most people thought—not to say hoped—had come to an end, has suddenly reappeared in the shape of a metrical account of a portion of the proceedings which gave rise to so much excitement. It is published in pamphlet form under the following title, 'Liberty of Speech; or, the Bar and the Bench: a Romance of the Dull Season. By a Briefless Barrister.' The scene is laid in the 'court-room at Fort Charles,' the court being crowded with pleaders and counsellors, whose names are very thinly disguised—Iranson, Peterson, Pewter, Wiley, and others. On the entrance of the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Meadows, Iranson rises, being first assisted to his feet by the Attorney-General in the course of his address. Several members of the junior Bar are heard to heave scarcely smothered sobs, and at one point Mr. Mookerjee weeps audibly. Iranson proceeds to state his case against Mr. Justice 'Faminemen' and 'Quickstep,' and refers to precedents of the time of Peacockus. There are intended to be some sharp cuts at the Bar in this address, when Iranson explains how that liberty of speech is a thing affecting themselves and not their clients, and how these take to law as to the Church, having failed at everything else. The audience is dismissed by the Chief Justice for tiffin. All meet again at 2 o'clock, and judgment is delivered, being little more than a metrical form of what was really said on the occasion by the Chief Justice. Then Iranson and Peterson consult, and still press their demands on the Chief Justice, but he is firm in his refusal; and the 'romance' ends with a short soliloquy of Peterson, in which he expresses disappointment at being foiled in some such fashion as this:—

'I thought to sit on them, and now, i' faith,
They will get the vantage.'

He says he will have recourse to other means,

'Annex the press,
And make my hungry juniors boldly write,' &c.

Then 'exit in a rage, throwing his brief at his juniors.'"

IF the Game Preservation Act proposed for Bombay could not have been better worked than a similar Act is in the Punjab no one need be very sorry that the Viceroy vetoed it. The Lahore paper writes:—"One Thakura, a native of the Kangra hills, was brought before the tehsildar of that district, charged with killing a dove. He was convicted and fined five rupees. The proceedings, however, have been before the Chief Court on the revision side thereof, and the conviction has been set aside on technical grounds. The words jungle fowl could not, the learned judges thought, receive so wide an interpretation as to include doves; and so Thakura was acquitted and got back his five rupees. What became of the corpus delicti does not appear. Perhaps the tehsildar ate it. Be that, however, as it may, let us hasten to congratulate both the legislature and the police on the remarkable circumstance that there should be a law amongst us which nobody cares to break. For, with the above notable exception, there has not been throughout this vast province a single prosecution for illegitimate slaughter of game. During two years no pheasants or partridges, or hares or sand-grouse, have been surreptitiously netted, hawked, snared, or shot during the close season in the Punjab. Happy legislature that can devise such genial laws! Happy people that can appreciate the gift! Thrice happy police, with nothing to do but jingle the small change in your pockets and sing ballads to the moon!"

A TELEGRAM to a London paper states that the Greek flag was hoisted on Sunday morning (July 10), on the old fortress of Arta, in presence of General Soutzo and his staff and detachments of all arms from the corps of occupation. No artillery salute was fired in honour of the occasion, on account of the commander of the Turkish troops on the other side of the river having expressed apprehensions lest the animosity of his soldiers might be roused and find vent against the Christian population. A religious service was previously held within the fortress: after which addresses were delivered by the Greek Archbishop and the Jewish Rabbi. The latter was accompanied by the heads of his community, on whom he enjoined the cultivation of social and civil virtues, respect and devotion to their new Sovereign, and obedience to constituted authority, that they might better contribute to the prosperity and glory of their new country. The Wallach inhabitants of Syrakos, a village on the northern edge of the boundary of the first section, have petitioned the Delimitation Commission to be included in Greece, and in reply have been told to present their request when the Commission arrives on the spot. The Turks are busily engaged throwing up and arming redoubts on the other side of the river. They appear to entertain some apprehension of a rising on the part of the Christian population and a contingent advance of the Greeks.

MONS. BERGER-DEPLACE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Allow me to convey through the medium of your valuable paper my heartfelt thanks to the anonymous persons who have so generously enabled me to go back to my family, by satisfying at once the ferocious claims of a creditor à outrance. It is a very pleasant duty for me to state that, though the English law was rigorously enforced in my case through foreign hard-heartedness, English liberality has, on the other hand, most generously hastened to help me out of the very uncomfortable impasse of a well-known hotel.—I remain, &c.,

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES AT THE BARODA HIGH SCHOOL.

THE interesting ceremony of the distribution of prizes to the successful students of the Baroda High School took place on Saturday last in the Maharaja's School. The hour fixed for the commencement of the proceedings was 4-15 p.m., and by that time His Highness the Maharaja, the Resident, Mr. Melvill, C.S.I., the Dewan, Raja Sir Madava Row, K.C.S.I., the ladies and officers of the station, and a select number of native gentlemen who take an interest in English education had assembled. After programmes had been distributed, Mr. Tait, the Principal, opened the proceedings by reading an interesting though brief report of the work of the school during the past session. Among other matters he referred to the number of good students who had failed in Sanscrit at the last Matriculation examination of the University of Bombay, and especially dwelt upon the bad reading and bad writing that usually characterise native scholars. He also pointed out that the school had almost doubled itself during the last five years, and that the number of students who had passed Matriculation was already twenty-six. In conclusion, he trusted that from year to year the school would go on prospering, so as to render itself still more worthy of the fostering care of the Baroda Government. After the reading of the report, recitations in the following order were delivered by some of the senior students:—

1. The Seven Ages of Man	Hatalkar, S. A. Form	III.
2. The Sister Condemned to Death	Tolat, V. G. "	I.
3. Scene from King John—
Arthur	Samarth, N. M. "	II.
Hubert	Khopkar, S. R. "	II.
4. Cautionary verses to Youth	Meheta, N. G. "	I.
5. To-day	Sampatrao Gackwar,	V.
6. The Last of Wives	Vas, B. J. "	III

These were mostly delivered in good style and with suitable expression, the part of Arthur in the extract from King John being sustained with much feeling and skill. The test of "Wives" with an evident appreciation of the humour. Next came the distribution of prizes by His Highness the Maharaja, who immediately afterwads read the following important address:

"Mr. Principal, masters, and boys,—The report which has just been read has greatly interested me, and I offer my sincere congratulations to the teachers and to those of the students who have combined to maintain the respectable standard which the High School has now reached—an earnest of future achievements of a still higher order. The keenness of the interest I take in the institution, the greatness of my appreciation of the efforts made by the teaching staff to give their scholars a good education, may be estimated from the step I lately took after paying the High School a visit. I consulted that my brother and several of my friends and relations should prosecute their studies in the High School. I do not desire that the motive I had in taking this step should have the appearance of a mere caprice without consequence; for I designed it to be the first step in a new path, in which I must persuade my Sirdars to go along with me. I hope to see them sending their sons to the public school, there to acquire such learning as will fit them for the high position it might be their privilege and should be their duty to hold in society. For the better administering of the public affairs of this State, it has been necessary to summon to Baroda highly instructed officers from other parts of India. It will always be necessary for the future that the public posts should be filled by competent and educated men. It will, at the same time, be my earnest hope that such progress may take place among my own subjects that they should be able to fill the higher offices of the State in their turn. Especially do I welcome the thought that the Sirdars may, by the acquisition of such learning as this school affords, adapt themselves to the requirements of the times. The charge of the education of our youths falls mainly on the public, and it is possibly consequent on this that the value of the instruction which individuals can obtain at so cheap a rate is not fully appreciated. On that day will education come to have gained its proper position when the Sirdars and leading people in Baroda will send their sons to the public schools, not with the notion that they are thereby doing what is asked of them, or that they are condescending to please others, but with a sincere desire to secure to their children the benefits of a sound education provided for them by the public. I shall always note with interest the number of scholars in the High School, who are the sons of Sirdars, the number of students in each Barod belonging to the various castes and classes of class be minity, and the number of students who are promoted to the High School from the Anglo-Vernacular schools in the districts. I trust that suitable encouragement will be given to the physical training of the students of this High School. I hope that when the noble pile which is now rapidly springing up is complete, and the studies of the boys are prosecuted in large and airy rooms, a playground also will be laid out, in which cricket and other games will be vigorously played. Whatever be in it, I shall always take a lively interest in the progress of education in these territories. With a college at the capital, well organized, and intended to be permanently maintained, and with branch schools distributed throughout the country, the people will have abundant means placed at their disposal for giving their sons that education without which they and their country cannot attain a high degree of happiness and prosperity. Mr. Melvill, ladies, and gentlemen, I am much obliged to you for the pleasure you have done me by your presence on this occasion."

Mr. Melvill then brought the proceedings to a close by addressing a few remarks to the students. He exhorted them to go through life as he always did, make a practice of speaking the truth, a course which, if once adopted, would never give them cause for regret. He also hoped that they would not make the common mistake of thinking that when they left school their education was finished, and pointed out to them his esteemed friend Sir Madhava Row as an example of how much knowledge might be acquired daily through life by those willing to seek for it. In conclusion, he wished every success to the masters and pupils of the Baroda High School.

PRIVATE THEATRICALS AT DEOLALI.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

DEOLALI, AUGUST. 6.

DEOLALI has been invaded by a foreign legion and we have gracefully capitulated. Although we had been informed of the enemy's intentions, we were altogether unprepared for their consummate skill and ability. The people of Nasik were the invaders, and the stage formed the basis of their operations; and our martial defenders, with their wives and their little ones, were soon led away captives by their art. Nature's mirror first reflected a well-known and charming comedietta, "The Happy Pair," a common title; a possible reality as long as the union endures; a reality as rare as a comet in the future life. Mrs. Ramsay, as Mrs. Honeyton, and Mr. Oliver, as her happy, husband, represented the two characters most artistically. The well-bred bored look of the too much loved husband, tired of sweets because they are always to be had without the asking, was ably rendered by Mr. Oliver; whilst the natural winning affection of the loving wife, and afterwards the abandon of her grief as she sobbed out the requiem of love's young dream, were true to the life in the person of Mrs. Ramsay. If we were but the Honeyton of real life, we think we would not unfrequently imitate his performance on the stage, if only that we might enjoy the artistic pose of sorrow, and afterwards revel in the luxury of reconciliation. During a short interval a chosen band of Byculla School boys and girls chirped prettily and merrily some popular airs; and then followed the serio-comic drama of "A Romantic Attachment." Mr. Sidney Merton, whose efforts to love well nigh cost him his suit, as his timidity in hunting well nigh lost him his seat, was feelingly represented by Mr. Grey; but Emmeline (Miss Vanrenen) had resolved that the diffidence should be overcome, because, charming little cousin that she was!—because she loved him. The daring scheme of making love to Dickey (Mr. Crowe, who in this character, with "feyther's new clothes," would have done credit to any stage) was carried out by Emmeline with sweet hypocrisy. If such seeming looks of love can be given, what must be the true flash of the lightning! Mrs. Chatworth, as rendered by Miss Oliver, was the very type in dress, manner, and acting of the friend and companion, the gentle adviser, who no longer fears to tell her age, and is ever ready to impart her experience for love to those who were all dressing-room ornaments; but many a good thing comes from the kitchen, as the shout declared which greeted Selina (Miss Leahy), Miss Emmeline's maid, at this her début on the stage. This was a very spirited performance, face and form, word and action, combining in harmony. John (Mr. Simmons) had not much play for his latent talent. He is prepared for bigger things in the future. In his place we would have had a keener eye for the maiden chance; but she preferred Dickey. This piece brought a pleasant evening to a happy termination; and this is written as a thank-offering to our kind neighbours of Nasik for their successful endeavours to cheer our monastic solitude.

RACING AT QUETTA.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

WE had a couple of days' racing, on July 26th and 28th. A good number of entries and well-attended lotteries made the races successful, and the impartiality of the handicappers, combined with mysterious rumours of new horses and owners, who were going to bring about a revolution of the present order of racing matters in Quetta, added greatly to the interest in them.

The Pony Race for 13·2 ponies on the first day ended in a dead heat between Major Hibbert's Countryman and Mr. J. Watson's Vulcan. There were 8 starters.

Mr. Lawford won the Galloway Race with Chorister.

The All Horse Handicap resulted in a good race between Colonel St. John's Wanderer and Mr. Watson's Zulu, which was won by the former. Jim was not the success people had expected him to be in this race. There were 6 starters.

The Arab Haydon Roostum won the Arab and C. B. Steeplechase Handicap, and Dr. Tully's Periwinkle the 13-1 Steeplechase.

On the second day Mr. J. Watson's The Doe won the 13 hands Pony heat, and later on the 13-1 Pony Race, beating Judy, the Kurrachee crack, pretty easily. Mr. MacDougal rode The Doe both times.

The Galloway Steeplechase was won very easily by Colonel Auchinleck's The Baron, ridden by Mr. Lang.

The Arab and C. B. Handicap fell to Rupert, owned by Mr. Kelly, in spite of such antagonists as Chorister and Roostum, the former running second, the latter "not in it."

The All Horse Steeplechase was won by Mr. J. Watson on Zulu. He was handicapped, too, by breaking a stirrup leather at the first fence, and having to ride with only one stirrup the whole 2½ miles.

The Hack Race was also won by Mr. Watson's Zulu.

THEFT OF A NECK-ORNAMENT.—Mooktee, woman, was on Saturday last convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee of stealing a gold neck-ornament, valued at Rs. 125, the property of Purshotum Jootha. She was sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment.

THEFT OF POSTAGE-STAMPS.—Jamnadass Luxmidass, a Government stamp-vendor, having his place of business on the ground-floor of the Custom House, Fort, reported to the police that on Friday last a young Mahomedan came to him and sold Rs. 2 worth of half-anna postage-stamps, and then went away. About ten minutes after complainant missed from his table an envelope which contained Rs. 238 worth of postage stamps of 12, 6, 4, 2, and 1 anna value, also court stamps. Search was at once made for the Mahomedan, but he could not be found.

AN OLD OFFENDER.—Cadurbux Mahomed Ali, alias Koodabux Mahomed Ali, a noted character, was on Saturday last convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee on two separate charges, the first of theft of five silver rings, valued at Rs. 5, and Rs. 12 in cash, the property of Assaram Sadhow, and the second of being found loitering at night at the Carnac Bunder, and failing to render a satisfactory account of himself, he being a reputed thief. He was sentenced to an accumulated term of twelve months' rigorous imprisonment.

THEFT ON THE B. B. AND C. I. RAILWAY.—Girbar Chiman, Gyan Anuntram, and Shiobux Ramdeen were on Saturday last charged before Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee, prisoner No. 1 with stealing a carpet bag containing wearing apparel, and brass utensils, &c., of the collective value of Rs. 25, the property of Luxumon Chimnajee, while travelling in the up passenger train of the B. B. and C. I. Railway Company on the 5th instant, and prisoners Nos. 2 and 3 with the abetment of the said offence. Mr. Maneckshaw Dhunjeebhoy, Inspector of the B. B. and C. I. Railway Police, appeared and stated that several robberies had recently taken place at the railway station at Ahmedabad in which he suspected the prisoners were implicated. He applied to his Worship for a week's remand, with a view of making further enquiries. The magistrate granted the application and postponed the hearing of the case to the 13th instant.

THE RECENT DOUBLE EXECUTION AT POONA.—His Excellency Sir James Fergusson has called for a full report as to the actual circumstances of the hanging case, particulars of which were officially reported to Mr. Moore, the Collector and District Magistrate, by Mr. E. T. Richardson, the City Magistrate. Dr. Cruickshank, the Inspector-General of Prisons, will shortly submit his report.

THE ROHILLAS.—A report was received from Palmoor, a village on the Madras road, that a band of Rohillas were creating a disturbance in the place. A troop of the African Cavalry had on under Lieut. Maitland, left Secunderabad on Thursday morning for Palmoor.—Deccan Herald.

THE CENSUS OFFICE AT SECUNDERABAD.—On Monday last there was a strike at the Census Office, owing, it is alleged, to some misunderstanding between the employés and the new Commissioner, Mr. Sawmy Row. Mr. Mehdi Ali, on his way from Bolarum, was mobbed at his gate by the subordinates, who were loud in their complaints.—Ibid.

INUNDATION OF KHETWADY.—The annual inundation of Khetwady is a reproach to our municipal administration. And still what are our public men doing for the relief of this important district? It is pitiable to see one good man—Mr. Kapadia—struggling with inadequate support to rouse the authorities to a sense of the danger of this periodical visitation. We should like a deputation of representatives to wait upon Mr. Ollivant and to give him an idea of the sufferings of thousands of honest rate-payers, each worthier of sympathy than Vrajeshji, the man-god. But we trust the Municipal Commissioner will not wait for such deputation. We are told that the engine at Worli can help him with its pumping power. And two of the lanes at least require only raising.—Indian Spectator.

BENGAL.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT.—On Wednesday afternoon, the manjis of two country boats had a dispute over the soundness of their respective crafts. From words they came to blows, and finally, to settle the question, they withdrew to mid-stream and agreed to have a tilt. One boat was leaden with 200 maunds of wheat and 30 maunds of oats; the other with stone ballast weighing as much, if not more. The tilt came off, and very exciting it was proving, the skipper of the ballast boat rammed his antagonist on her starboard broadside, and in about three minutes had gained a signal victory. The magnanimous victor, seeing his adversary sinking, threw out hawsers and towed the wheat laden boat to shore, by which time the latter had sunk up to her gunwales. The manjis and their crews, numbering about 10 men, were taken before the magistrate, where they could not understand why the provisions of section 160 I. P. C. should have been made applicable to them, and were further staggered on being fined all round. It would be worth knowing what the owners of the boats think.—Englishman.

FATAL BOAT ACCIDENT ON THE GANGES AT BAZITPORE.—A fatal accident occurred here some days ago, which might have been attended with far more serious results but for the timely and prompt assistance rendered by Messrs. Mackenzie and Irwin. On the morning of the 14th July the Sub-Manager of Hyaghat Darbhanga Raj, with his Moonshee and some peons, crossed over to the Deara, which lies between Bazitpore and Barh, and, having concluded their business, the party, including 12 Kahars with a palkee, were returning in a small dinghy which, owing to its overcrowded state, soon after leaving the bank, filled and sank. As it was a case of sauve qui peut, those who could swim struck out for the shore; i.e., 8 Kahars. The Moonshee, one peon and one Kahar sank at once. The sub-manager had clutched an oar, a Kahar a bamboo, the remainder of the party supported themselves by the palkee. They had been in the water about an hour when perceived by Mr. Macnaghten, who was returning to Bazitpore in his launch. The first man reached was the Kahar who, just as he was within a boat's length of the launch, sank, but rose again, luckily close by, and was saved by Mr. Irwin. When taken on board he was in a very exhausted condition. The submanager was the next reached. When picked up he was floating face downwards, and despite the strenuous efforts of Mr. Macnaghten and Mr. Irwin to resuscitate him he never breathed again. The remainder of the party were got on board and taken ashore. Had it not been for the promptitude displayed by the party in the launch, 12 instead of 4 lives would have been lost in this lamentable catastrophe.—Englishman.

MADRAS.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.—Velloogopaul, a compositor employed in the Madras Mail office, was charged on Thursday, before Mr. T. V. Poonsawmi Pioly, with contempt of court for walking into the Police Court with his slippers on. His Worship sentenced the accused to pay a fine of eight annas, and warned him not to do so again.—Times.

A DISPUTED WILL.—The will of the late Mr. R. B. Elwin, formerly Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway, occupied the attention of the Probate Court in London on the 14th ultimo, before the Right Hon. the President. The plaintiffs, Beresford Anderson and another as executors, propounded a will, dated in November, 1870, of the late Mr. Elwin, who died on the 7th February last, at the age of 55, possessed of about £30,000. The defendant, Mrs. Elwin, the widow of the deceased, opposed probate of the will, alleging that it was never executed, and that it was destroyed by him with the intention of a revocation. The testator retired from his position on the Madras Railway Company in 1878. It appeared that his wife and two children resided at Dussoldorff. He made a will in Ireland, as he was not anxious that any English solicitor should know of its existence; but it was not executed there. After his death a careful search was made for his will, but it could not be found. Advertisements were inserted in the leading newspapers in regard to the will, but without result. It was given in evidence by a solicitor of Ireland, that he prepared a will of the deceased, and forwarded it to the Oriental Club, Hamilton Square, but there was no testimony given as to its execution. His Lordship said that upon the evidence the natural presumption was that the deceased destroyed the will with the object of revoking it. He pronounced against the will, with costs out of the estate.

SUSPENSION OF A MADRAS BARRISTER.

At the High Court Chambers, Madras, before Sir Charles Turner, the Chief Justice, and the Honourable Mr. Justice Kernan, Mr. Wedderburn, assisted by Mr. Norton, in the absence of the Advocate-General, appeared and moved that Mr. Cadwallader Waddy, barrister-at-law, be removed, suspended or otherwise punished for unprofessional conduct. The application was based on the following correspondence :—

High Court, Madras, 17th March, 1880.

To CADWALLADER WADDY, Esq.

SIR,—By a resolution passed to-day at a Bar meeting held in the Advocate-General's room, I have been instructed to write to you and ask you whether the "notice" of which I send you a copy was printed and issued by your authority.—I am, &c.,

EARDLEY NORTON, Junior,

Madras, 18th March, 1880.

To EARDLEY NORTON, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—This notice was drawn up by my Gomastha, but "no proof" corrected by me, nor did I read it carefully, as I left Negapatam without seeing it. I find it necessary to let all the district know I have settled there. I, of course, in the mofussil, act as pleader and do the same as other pleaders, whose advertisements appear in papers, and I shall continue to conduct my practice as I think proper, and decline to be dictated to by others not settled in the mofussil, and who have no experience of the difficulties a European has to contend against in the competition with native pleaders who have a great advantage over Europeans in every way. I must decline, therefore, to admit your interference or that of the Madras Bar with my practice in any way.—Yours faithfully, C. WADDY.

34, Woburn Square, W.C., London, 20th May, 1880.

To the Benchers of the Honorable Society, Middle Temple.

My Lords and Gentlemen,—As a member of the Indian and English Bar I beg to forward for your consideration the enclosed papers regarding the conduct of Mr. Waddy. I do not belong to the Madras Bar, but I was requested by the Junior of the Bar to lay these papers before your bench. Having now performed my trust, I will ask your Lordships to be pleased to communicate your decision to the Junior of the Madras Bar, High Court, Madras.—I have, &c.,

SACKVILLE DAVIS, D. C. L. (Oxon.)

High Court, Madras, 5th April, 1880.

To SACKVILLE DAVIS, Esq.

My Dear Sir,—As you are on your way home to England, it may be in your power to render the Madras Bar signal service by bringing to the notice of the Benchers of the Middle Temple a very gross professional outrage committed by one of the members of their Inn, Mr. Cadwallader Waddy. That gentleman has issued a printed notice at Negapatam touting for business, a copy of which notice I enclose. As junior of the Bar I was instructed to ask him by letter if he admitted the authorship of that notice. By letter to me he made that admission. Copies of these letters are also enclosed. Acting under instructions I have sent the whole correspondence to the Judges. You, as a member of the English Bar, have an interest equal with our own in the maintenance of professional honour and etiquette. The Madras Bar has unanimously condemned Mr. Waddy's notice as highly improper and unprofessional. But the Bar here has absolutely no power to enforce observance of any of its rules upon any recalcitrant member. Our only protection lies in an appeal to the Benchers at home in the case of any serious violation of professional etiquette. You will have placed us all under great obligations to yourself should you stir yourself in the matter on reaching home and succeed in arousing the Benchers of the Middle Temple. I may say that it is not true, as stated in Mr. Waddy's letter, that other pleaders advertise. But even if they do they ought not to, and two blacks cannot make a white. It is to be observed that Mr. Waddy, in his letter to me, claims to have advertised as pleader : notice never mentions the word "pleader," but sets forth his privileges as a "barrister."—I am, &c.,

EARDLEY NORTON.

Middle Temple, 11th June, 1880.

The Treasurer having called the attention of the Bench to the case of Mr. Cadwallader Waddy, it was resolved that Mr. Waddy be called upon to show cause by memorial, counsel, attorney, or otherwise, at a Parliament to be held on the 10th November next, why he should not be disbarred and his name erased from the books of the Society.

Treasury, Middle Temple, E. C., 12th June, 1880.

To EARDLEY NORTON, Esq.,

DEAR SIR,—Mr. Sackville Davis having brought to the attention of my Treasurer papers entrusted to him by you relative to a complaint against Mr. Waddy, the same was submitted to the Masters of the Bench of the Middle Temple at their Parliament held yesterday, and an order was made of which I beg to enclose a copy. You will observe the date on which Mr. Waddy is called upon to attend before the Benchers of this Inn, and they should in the interval be furnished with the original documents and with any observations and assistance which your Bar will be so good as to furnish. It would be more satisfactory if some one could be deputed on behalf of your Bar to attend before the parliament on the 9th November next, being the last Parliament in Michaelmas Term. I enclose.—I remain, &c.,

CHARLES SHAW, Under-Treasurer.

At a meeting held by the Madras Bar on the 22nd July, 1880, among other resolutions, the following were passed :—That, in the event of Mr. Waddy apologising to his Inn for his conduct as unbecoming a barrister, the Madras Bar trusts the Benchers of the Middle Temple will not go the length of disbarring Mr. Waddy. They instructed Mr. Norton to ask Mr. John Bruce Norton or Mr. John Dawson Mayne to attend the Parliament of the Benchers of the Middle Temple on the 19th November, 1880, on behalf of the Madras Bar.

At a Parliament held on the 10th November, 1880, the representation made on behalf of the Madras Bar as to the conduct of Mr. Waddy, a member of the House, was considedered in allowing the following notice to be published :—

"Notice is hereby given to the public that Cadewallader Waddy, Esquire, Barristar-at-Law, of the High Court of Judicature of Madras, has arrived at Negapatam and established his office in the bungalow of Salunga Ecoolapillay, 2nd Line Beach, Negapatam. That by virtue of his profession he has been invested in civil cases with the privilege of appearing and pleading in the District Munsiff's Courts, Subordinate Courts, Civil Courts, and High Court, and to make appeals to the Queen, and in magisterial cases he is privileged to appear and plead in the Courts of Magistrates of 1st, 2nd and 3rd classes, Sessions Court, and High Court, and to make appeals to the Government and the Queen. Parties to suits (civil or magisterial) are hereby informed that if they call at his office and empower him either to prosecute or defend their suits, he is prepared both to give his opinion, and also to do the best for them in the matter. It is an evident fact that parties appealing to the High Court from other stations than Madras are, as a general rule, put to great inconvenience, trouble and expense; all which can be avoided by entrusting the matter to his hands; as having his solicitor in Madras, he will draw up and forward all appeals to be filed by him, and will himself be present at Madras on the date of hearing to conduct the matter personally. In cases where poverty renders suitors with good cases unable to pay the fees he may demand, Mr. Waddy (provided the party soliciting his assistance proves deserving) will be willing to render his service gratis. Many persons are not aware that appeals in Small Cause Court cases can be preferred before the High Court of Madras, and many persons averse to incurring the trouble, inconvenience and expense attendant upon proceeding to Madras and preferring appeals (in frequently very good cases,) are far rather willing to put up with their loss. Mr. Waddy hereby informs them that should these cases be entrusted to him, and his fees and travelling charges paid, he will be willing to conduct them for suitors and dispensing with their personal attendance; himself doing all that is requisite to the best of his power and ability. It is further notified that he is prepared to appear and plead for parties at the following districts :—North Tanjore, South Tanjore, Trichinopoly, Madura, Tinnevelly, Coimbatore, North and South Arcot. Mr. Waddy is further prepared to receive instructions to appear for parties, either when given personally or by letter, or telegram.—Negapatam March 18, 1880."

Mr. J. D. Mayne, a barrister of the Inner Temple, attended on the part of the Madras Bar, and Mr. F. H. Lascelles, a barrister of the Inner Temple, on the part of Mr. Waddy.

The notice purporting to be issued by Mr. Waddy under date Negapatam, March 18, 1880, and printed in the English and Tamil languages, having been read, and Mr. Waddy not having questioned the allegation that it was published on his behalf, and with his knowledge and not withdrawn, and his counsel now admitting that Mr. Wadd must be held responsible for its publication, the Masters of the Bench—after hearing what was urged by Mr. Mayne and Mr. Lascelles—deliberated on the matter, and their attention being given in the other documents in the case, and especially to the letter under date Combaconum, 10th October, 1880, addressed by Mr. Waddy to Mr. Shaw, the Under-Treasurer, and having considered the position of barristes practising in the Mofussil Courts of Madras, and giving full weight to the apology and expression of regret offered by Mr. Lascelles, on the part of Mr. Waddy, and to the observations made on the part of the Madras Bar in the letter from their Junior, written on their behalf, dated 28th July, 1880, requesting, in the event of Mr. Waddy apologising to his Inn for his conduct, that the Benchers of the Middle Temple would not go to the length of disbarring Mr. Waddy, the Masters of the Bench came to the decision following :—

They strongly condemn the conduct of Mr. Waddy in reference to the said notice, and hold that he has been guilty of misconduct as a barrister of his Inn, in publishing or permitting the publication of such a notice. They disapprove the tone in which the said letter of the 19th October, 1880, is written by Mr. Waddy, and the introduction therein of offensive matter, which, whether true or otherwise, could not affect the decision of the matter. Whilst accepting the apology tendered by Mr. Lascelles, they regret that a somewhat and apology were not offered at an earlier period, and by Mr. Waddy himself. They do adjudge and order that Mr. Cadwallader Waddy do and shall, for his said misconduct about the said notice, be suspended from all the rights and privileges of a barrister of this house for a period of six calender months, to commence from this present 19th day of November, 1880. They do also order that this order of Parliament be screened, and a copy sent to the Madras Bar.

The following telegram was next received from the Under-Secretary by Mr. Eardley Norton in December, 1880 :—"Judgment sent by letter; suspended till March 1st, giving Waddy time for appeal."

The following letter was addressed by Mr. Waddy to Mr. Norton on the 16th December, 1880 :—

"SIR,—I have received a telegram myself to the effect that I have been given until 1st March to file appeal. I have declined to apologise, as Lewis, the petition writer, drew up that "notice" and I cannot admit I ever touted for business, as I do not require to do so; and to ask me to apologise for nothing, is only adding insult to injury.—Yours truly,

"C. WADDY.

"N.B.—Lewis has since "bolted," as I was so disgusted I threatened to prosecute him for forgery."

A telegram was received on the 8th May by Mr. Norton from the Middle Temple to the following effect :—"Waddy stands suspended till September. Letter follows."

The following is the letter addressed by Mr. Waddy to the Benchers of the Middle Temple on the 27th January 1881 :—

"Gentlemen,—I received notice of suspension by telegraph and closed my office on 18th and have not been to Court since. Mr. Lascelles informs me now that the suspension is for six months instead of until 1st March. I have already apologised through Mr. Lascelles, and directed a Madras solicitor to send all the correspondence between myself and the Bar Association (the Madras Bar is a misnomer) to the Honorable Society of the Middle Temple. Seven members of the Bar are practising in this district and know nothing about the matter, except Mr. Hooper of my Inn, and he exonerates me from all blame, and so do others who have asked me about it. It occurred through my not reading the notice to my clients that I was not leaving the district, which my clerk said was absolutely necessary, as, on a previous occasion, the Brahmin pleaders had told clients that I had taken fees and was not going to return. Several clients threatened my clerks and demanded their briefs and fees back. As it was, four days after I left for Madras, an armed party, sixty strong, by torch light, attacked a neighbouring house and looted it, and my clerks were apprehensive of the same treatment. I never saw any proof of the circular. I told them to send and they did not issue it until I was nearly three weeks at Madras. I dismissed the two chiefly concerned in it on my return to Negapatam, although I knew they did it through zeal. To suppose a barrister capable of advertising his law points, like Holloway's Pills, is to suppose him insane and liable to a fine of £500, a month's imprisonment or six months' suspension under the Legal Practitioners Act. The statement made to my client Mr. Abbs by Mr. Norton that Mr. Waddy went to Negapatam and advertised for work is a deliberate untruth, as I had no office open there for three months previously, and Messrs. Tarrant Lascelles and Ross Johnson, the seniors of the Bar, never attended the Bar meeting is alleged by Mr. Norton. Am under medical treatment so excuse brevity."

Upon this correspondence the Advocate-General was requested, as the head of the Bar, to bring to the notice of the Judges Mr. Waddy's suspension by the Benchers of the Middle Temple, with a view to his suspension till 1st September, 1881, or to such action as the Court may deem advisable. In the absence of Mr. O'Sullivan, who has proceeded to Masulipatam, Mr. Wedderburn moved the matter. Mr. Wedderburn submitted that the Court had the power to remove, suspend, or pass any other orders it might think proper.

Their Lordships upon this confirmed the orders of the Benchers of the Middle Temple, and ruled that Mr. Waddy be suspended from the privileges of an advocate of the High Court till the 1st September next.—Madras Times.

ROBBERY.—A daring robbery is reported to have been committed in the city near Taksali gate. It is said that the shop of a bunniah named Hira Singh was broken into and the contents of the shop, consisting of cash, jewellery, and sugar stolen.—The house of another bunniah in the same bazar has been entered and jewels and cash amounting in value to Rs. 300 carried away.—Civil and Military Gazette.

HINDUS AND MAHOMEDANS.—It cannot be said that the recent orders of Government allowing the Hindus of Multan to open their own shops for the sale of jhatka have given general satisfaction. The animosity of feeling between the Hindus and the Mahomedans at Multan continues with more or less severity. Only a few days ago the Mussulmans in the cantonment applied to the Cantonment Magistrate for permission to open their own shops in the cantonment for the sale of such articles for the use of the Mahomedans as are sold by the Hindus. But the application was not granted.—Civil and Military Gazette.
